

An awareness programme on “Domestic Violence Against Women” was organized by “Taluk Legal Service Committee”, Rangia chapter, under the aegis of “Assam State Legal Service Committee” in co-operation with Women’s Studies Research Cell, Rangia College on 29.06.2018 in the Conference Hall of Rangia College.

Banajit Kalita, a member of the State Sub-divisional Legal Service, while explaining the purpose of the meeting, stated that this meeting is an attempt to make people aware regarding the legal procedures associated with domestic violence since in the present day situation this has become a very relevant issue.

In his address, resource person Advocate Syed Sariffuddin Ahmed commented that ‘tolerance’ is the only tool to prevent domestic violence.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, 2019 a day long programme was organized in the Rangia College premises by Women's Studies Research Cell, Rangia College in co-operation with the Women's Cell of Rangia College Teachers' Unit and "Mon Niramoy Kendra, Guwahati". The topic of the day's lecture programme was 'Mental Health in a Changing World' where renowned psychologist Dr. Jayanta Das and psychiatrist Mrs. Jayashree Das were invited as guest speakers.

A lively interaction took place after the lectures of the resource persons where teachers and students as well asked many questions to quench their inquisition regarding the unique psychology of human beings.
